Quick Course – Confined Space Safety

Course Description

Confined spaces pose a significant risk in the workplace due to changed environmental factors, such as oxygen depletion and the build up of toxic gases. In this quick course, you will learn best practices for confined space safety.