Amputation – Major Loss Assessment

The following Intervention Assessment provides insight into reducing the risk of incidents and injuries from MACHINERY AMPUTATION. Review each step identified and evaluate how well you have accomplished it. For more information into the importance of each step, click on the information icon next to each step in the table. Compare the implementation of the program component against the definitions in the table and check the box next to the applicable definition.