

Asphalt Company Charged for Clean Environment Act Violations

Asphalt Company Charged for Clean Environment Act Violations for installing a 2,000-litre petroleum product storage system without site approval. The government also claims that the business performing the installation wasn't legally authorized to perform such work.

[McAsphalt Industries Ltd., Govt. News Release]