

Heat Illness – Program Audit

The following assessment provides insight into the stage of program implementation for each element of your Heat Illness Program.

1. Review each element of the Program. For more information into the role of the Program Element in protecting workers, click on the information icon next to each element.
2. Compare the implementation of the Program Element against the definitions in the table and select the box in the column directly before the applicable definition.

* This document is meant to serve as a guide and may not be all inclusive to local and regional regulations. Review local and regional regulations to ensure proper compliance.