How COVID-19 Affects Your Business: We ask the HR Experts

ON DEMAND WEBINAR

Can employers require the COVID-19 vaccine? Is an employer able to ask for proof a vaccine was obtained outside of work? Can workers be required to be tested before returning to the office?

These questions and more are answered by our HR OnDemand Human Resources partners at ThinkHR. As businesses prepare to bring employees back into the office, many questions loom regarding the implications of the current state of COVID-19.

In this webinar our special guest, Susanna Lauro, JD, PHR, Human Resources Advisor, ThinkHR will address:

- What you need to know now that a vaccine is available
- COVID-19 exposure and contact tracing implications
- Families First Coronavirus Response Act update
- Returning to the workplace and COVID-19 testing
