

Newsletter – August 2026

Download the August 2026 newsletter which is is packed with practical ideas to strengthen your workplace safety program. Explore how claims and near-miss data can drive smarter training, discover creative ways to make safety presentations more engaging, and learn how to use badges to motivate learners without undermining professionalism. You'll also get four new Meeting Kits covering infectious disease risks, aging infrastructure, noise and vibration hazards, and cyber-physical safety threats, along with the latest Fatality Files to help reinforce key safety lessons.