

Quick Course – Be a Safety Leader

An employer or supervisor can't stand by you every second to see that safety rules are followed. You must take charge of your safety because you have the most to gain – and the most to lose.