Quick Course – Struck-By

Course Description

Struck-by injuries are produced by a forceful hit between the injured person and an object or piece of equipment. In this course, you will learn about the four main types of struck-by injuries, and how to protect yourself from them.